[YUKI GOSEI KOGYO acquires FSSC22000 certification]

TOKYO, May 12, 2021, --YUKI GOSEI KOGYO has acquired FSSC 22000 certification, which is a system for delivering internationally defined safe foods to consumers.

We have set the fostering of quality culture as one of the guidelines of our medium-term management plan, and will ensure safety in the food-related business in addition to the conventional pharmaceutical-related business.

FSSC is an abbreviation for Food Safety System Certification, a system standard for food safety developed by the FSSC Foundation.

It is a standard approved as one of the food safety certification schemes by GFSI (Global Food Safety Initiative), a non-profit organization centered on the food retail industry.

As of December 2020, there are approximately 24,000 registrations worldwide.
